

2012
NEW YEAR'S GREETING
FROM DANNY & VERA

From: Daniel Kuranji [<mailto:kuranjid@gmail.com>]
Sent: January 12, 2012 7:35 AM

Dear friends,

We are at the very beginning of another great year. We are excited that we have people like you that continue to show interest in all that we have been involved in here in Serbia. Your love, care, support and prayers is something we value and treasure. May God bless you in this year, may you continue to serve Him and fellow men right where you are. Remember that investment in people is the best investment!

We started the year with many plans and all have to do with people and desire to make the difference - whether through church activities, Drug Rehab center, or visiting terminally ill, our desire is to bring hope. As we look after physical needs, we desire to meet the spiritual needs as well. You are our huge help and support, and we thank you so much.

Thousands of kids have been smiling last couple of months... as they received the OCC boxes. Families are grateful, and we love the season of giving. A small gift goes a long way!

We are so glad to report that lots of winter clothes that were shipped from SPAC just couple of months ago, are in our stores now, and are hot items! Thanks to all that took part in the amazing "Container Project for Serbia!"

Jana, after finishing the program in our rehab center is rejoicing because now, he has so many opportunities to serve. He is on staff at the center, but he is also visiting terminally ill patients. He is part of the team, and is so excited. His life was in ruins, on heroin for 17 years, but now, God is using his life in so many ways....as the team visits homes that need help physically, there are so many that have different kinds of problems at home, including addictions in the family. Who can understand them better than one who has been free and changed by God.

Jana says: "People wish that I will have a great new year. I do not think it can be any better than the last year!"

Emil serves those that are dying with so much love and care. He hopes that the Lord will give him many more opportunities to serve. We have to constantly remind him not to work so hard and such long hours! His face glows with joy as he keeps investing in people!

As you look at some of the pictures, please remember to pray for him and those he visits.

May God bless you as you look for opportunities to serve. When we serve others, we serve HIM! This gives true meaning in life!

Happy New Year, and rejoice!

Vera & Danny